To our Customers: In order to comply with the majority of state and local sales tax law requirements, it is necessary that we have in our files a properly executed exemption certificate from all of our customers who claim sales tax exemption. If we do not have this certificate, we are obliged to collect the tax for the state in which the property is delivered.

If you are entitled to sales tax exemption, please complete the certificate and send it to us at your earliest convenience. If you purchase tax free for a reason for which this form does not provide, please send us your special certificate or statement.

This form of certification has been determined to be acceptable to the following states:

Alabama	Connecticut	Kansas	Minnesota	North Dakota	South Dakota	Washington
Alaska	Georgia	Maine	Missouri	Oklahoma	Tennessee	Wisconsin
Arizona	Idaho	Maryland	Nebraska	Pennsylvania	Texas	West Virginia
Arkansas	Illinois	Massachusetts	Nevada	Rhode Island	Utah	Wyoming
Colorado	Iowa	Michigan	New Mexico	South Carolina	Vermont

Note: Arizona law provides that a seller will be held liable for sales tax due on any sales with respect to which an exemption certificate is found to be invalid, for whatever reason.

Illinois, Iowa and South Dakota do not have an exemption sales of property for subsequent lease or rental.

Caution to Seller: In order for the certificate to be accepted in good faith by the seller, the seller must exercise care that the property being sold is of a type normally sold wholesale, resold, leased, rented, or utilized as an ingredient or component part of a product manufactured by the buyer in the usual course of his business. A seller failing to exercise due care could be held liable for the sales tax due in some states or cities.

Misuse of this certificate by the seller, lessor, buyer, lessee, or the representative thereof may be punishable by fine, imprisonment or loss of right to issue certificates in some state or cities.
